Comptroller's refce to art: 214 seems to be a mistake.

As regards the 2nd, the I.G. of Education says that it has been commuted into leave on private affairs and that even this, it is reported is irregular under note to art: 209. M.S.R. The Comptroller says that he has desired the I.G. of Education to submit direct to Govt the explanation of the officer responsible for the grant of the first leave and to explain the circs that warranted the grant of the 2nd period of leave. The explanation has not as yet been received from the I.G. of Education. The first leave was granted 30 years' ago. The recovery of the leave allces drawn during the period may be waived.

2. The applicant was retired at the age of 55 yrs 9 months and 12 days under the G.O dt: 10-1-12 (Vide entry against col: 5 on the 3rd page of the pension applⁿ). As it was thus known beforehand that he would be retired from 1-7-1912, it is necessary to know how the 2nd leave was granted, before ordering the recovery of the allces. Draft calling for the subn of the explanation at an early date is subd.
